Things That I Ponder

Sunrise

Have you watched a brilliant rosy red sunrise lately? Have you wondered how the colors can be so bright after such a dark night? Who directs the rays of the sun with their array of colors to infinity and displays them for the enjoyment of every human being on this earth? How can there be a new pattern each day? Such a kaleidoscope of brightness, one can only gaze in awe at the display!

This happens in our spirit too! Watch the brilliance on the face of a child who has been nurtured on the wonders of life. The glow on their face will light even the darkest gloomiest, most depressing time of your life! Their optimism, if allowed to permeate into your darkest days will change the atmosphere around you and brighten your whole day to the level of the child's innocence. Your spirit will be elevated to the height of joy if you allow it to manifest!

The clients of Consolidated Health Care Services have wisely chosen to seek the higher level. The caring of the staff at Consolidated Health Care Services lifts their spirit with their joyful smiles and tender care.
